A student is in Good Standing after each fall/spring/summer/winter term with cumulative GPA \( \geq 2.0 \). Each fall or spring semester that a student falls out of Good Standing begins 1\textsuperscript{st} Academic Probation in the flowchart below. Nothing on the flowchart applies to a student in Good Standing.

1\textsuperscript{st} Academic Probation
- must maintain semester GPA \( \geq 2.5 \) until Good Standing
- semester GPA < 2.5 & cumulative GPA < 2.0

1\textsuperscript{st} Academic Suspension
- semester GPA \( \geq 2.0 \) & cumulative GPA < 2.0
- semester GPA < 2.0

2\textsuperscript{nd} Academic Probation
- must maintain semester GPA \( \geq 2.5 \) until Good Standing
- semester GPA < 2.5 & cumulative GPA < 2.0

2\textsuperscript{nd} Academic Suspension
- semester GPA \( \geq 2.0 \) & cumulative GPA < 2.0
- semester GPA < 2.0

3\textsuperscript{rd} Academic Probation
- must maintain semester GPA \( \geq 2.5 \) until Good Standing
- semester GPA < 2.5 & cumulative GPA < 2.0

Final Suspension
- permanently dismissed from Virginia Tech

Notes:
1. “semester” refers to a fall or spring semester.
2. Summer and winter session GPAs change academic status only if they return a student to Good Standing.
3. A student with semester GPA < 2.0 and cumulative GPA \( \geq 2.0 \) is placed on Academic Warning without note on the transcript. (Transcript shows Good Standing.)
4. A student can take no more than 16 credits during a semester on probation or just returning from suspension.